

GUARDIAN PLATFORM BRIEF

Guardian University and Human Risk

Structured learning, measurable progress and remediation-driven human defence.

INTENDED AUDIENCE	Business leaders, people teams, compliance stakeholders and learners
PUBLICATION STATUS	Included in Guardian Core - user and content allowances are confirmed in the package schedule

Learning connected to security outcomes

Guardian University provides structured course browsing, assigned learning, progress, quizzes and certificates. Human-risk signals and recommendations can connect learning activity to clear remediation outcomes.

Learner experience

- Learning Centre dashboard and course catalogue
- Assigned, in-progress and completed learning visibility
- Onboarding prominence and due-date clarity
- Structured modules, lessons, video and acknowledgement content
- Quiz scoring and certificate rules for eligible courses

Human-risk and remediation

- Explainable risk factors and recommendations
- Course and policy assignment actions
- Campaign-linked remediation visibility
- Provider and operations views of overdue and completed learning
- Controlled escalation and review workflows

Included and separately scoped

Guardian University and Human Risk are included in Core. Bespoke course creation, custom video production and specialist campaign work may be separately priced when outside the included user and content allowance.
